Dear GS:

It was good of you to write. As you know, no one should enter government service if he doesn't expect to get his share of brickbats, and I have been fairly immune up until recently, and on the whole I think the tide has turned.

I appreciated your views about the Latin American situation. I believe we are taking steps now which may help to improve the situation, but it is hard being a "big brother" to all the world.

Sincerely,
